There were cases of flight from one mission to another, only to be mobbed and compelled to flee again. The members of the American Methodist Episcopal mission climbed over a wall to a neighbor's and remained 12 hours in a dirty little loft, watching the destruction of their property. At length all took refuge at the yamen of the district magistrate. Much apprehension is felt for the missionaries of the China inland missions, scattered in several stations over Chang Tu plain, away from water and telegraph communications. Commissioner Browning Gives the Hostiles Some Friendly Advice.

Ordered To Return To Their Reservations Quietly and Peacefully Before the Troops Arrive-Cavalry From Fort Rebinson Starts to the Front.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Commissioner of Indian Affairs Browning has forwarded a dispatch to Agent Teter at the Fort Hall agency, instructing him to order the Indians now on the warpath to return to their reservations quietly and peacefully before the military detachment ordered to the scene reaches there. The commissioner says he wants it understood that he advises the Indians as a friend, desirous of their best interest and welfare. Agent Teter sent a reply this morning stating that he had sent trustworthy Indians to deliver the message to the Bannocks in the field.

WASHINGTON, July 25 .- General Vincent, acting adjutant general, has received a telegram from Brigadier General Coppinger that he has ordered four troops of cavalry from Fort Robinson, Neb., to proceed at once to the scene of the disturbance at Jackson Hole and that he will go there in person to investigate the situation and conduct the military operations. Fort Robinson is the nearest available cavalry station. Forts Russell and Washakie are garrisoned with infantry. As foot soldiers are not of great service in Indian campaigns, it is not believed they will be put into service.

General Miles on the Trouble, New York, July 25.—General Miles said last night, in reference to the Indian uprising in Idaho and Wyoming: "They are a strong, hardy and brave people. Yes, they are good fighters. In two or three days I ended the revolt in 1878. If well treated, they are not a bloodthirsty people.'

STOCK YARDS FORECLOSURE.

To the Wall,

San Francisco, July 25.—A local paper says the Union Stock Yards company at Rodeo, Contra Costa county, will be foreclosed by creditors to secure the payment of $250,000 worth of bonds, most of which were floated in the east. The company was organized by A. S. Garrettson of Sioux City, Silberhorn of Chicago, Patrick Tormey of this city and other wealthy men. Garrettson and Silberhorn were the leading spirits. The value of the real estate of the company is estimated at $156,500. It is incumbered to the amount of $459,000. The personal property is valued at $13,-683. The debts due outside of the realty incumbrances amount to $342,768. CHICAGO, July 25.-W. H. Silberhorn says he has not been connected with the stock yards company at Rodeo, Cal., for 18 months and no longer owns stock. "Garretson was the cashier of a Sioux City bank and was always scheming. He pretended to have money and I went into the deal with him, but his money did not materialize and he tried to do business on wind with the inevitable result.

OMAHA POLICE MUDDLE.

Two Fire and Police Commissions May Be the Result of a Feud. OMAHA, July 25 .- The first gun in the police commission fight has been fired by the city council, which has ordered the judiciary committee to investigate the fire and police commission. This action is important as showing the attitude of the council toward the present commission, and its disposition to pave the way for the commission to be appointed next week under the new law. It is said the council will vote salaries only to the new commission and its appointees, including Chief of Police White and Fire Chief Redell. Omaha will, within the next ten days, have two police boards and two separate fire and police forces, which will work at cross purposes until the matter can be determined by the courts.
